CITY CLERK

MEMORANDUM

DATE: April 21, 2009
TO: The Honorable Richard Conlin
President, Seattle City Council
FROM: Greg Nickels
SUBJECT: Re-appointment to Parks and Green Spaces Levy Oversight Committee

I am happy to forward to the City Council the following appointment to the Levy Oversight Committee for a three-year term ending December 31, 2011:

Name	Term Ends	Position	Succeeding
Bruce Bentley	12/31/11	Citizens' Committee Representative	Appointment

The Parks and Green Spaces Levy Oversight Committee is a sixteen-member advisory committee providing oversight of the 2000 Pro Parks Levy and the 2008 Parks for All Levy. Eight of the members are appointed by the Mayor and eight are appointed by the City Council. The membership is to include a representative of the Board of Park Commissioners and is to have diverse geographic representation. Authorization to form this committee and the details of its membership are described in Ordinance 120024, July 6, 2000, and Ordinance 122749, July 12, 2008. All appointments are subject to City Council confirmation. Attached to this memorandum is the current membership roster of the Levy Oversight Committee, including this reappointment.

The appointment bio for the appointee follows:

Bruce Bentley

Bruce Bentley is a workhorse for youth and parks in Seattle. As a volunteer, he has devoted countless hours to helping youth through the Department of Parks and Recreation's Southwest Community Center Advisory Council and the Associated Recreation Council. He served as Chair of the Board of Park Commissioners, and is currently a director of the Woodland Park Zoo. Bruce will provide the Parks Levy Oversight Committee with a depth of knowledge and city-wide perspective developed through years of volunteer service. His name, easy smile and hearty laugh are known and loved throughout the City.
